

PROBLEM STATEMENT

- Differently abled people (deaf and dumb) face several difficulties in communicating with other people.
- Generally dumb people use sign language for communication but they find difficulty in communicating with others who don't understand sign language.